Gauge may vary according to individual knitting style. Change needle size if necessary to achieve gauge. Alternatively, rework pattern with your own gauge measurements.

Summary

✳️Note: entire garment worked with 2 strands of yarn held together.

Body (back & front): Cast on with long-tail cast-on method. Work in st st. After binding off, pick up stitches from cast-on edge; work welt in pattern stitch. Bind off.

Ruffle (make 2): Cast on with long-tail cast-on method. Work in pattern stitch. Bind off. Referring to schematic, gather each ruffle.

Neckline, armholes & shoulder straps: Seam sides of garment with mattress stitch. With crochet hook, work sc edging along neckline and bind off. Make 2 crochet chains and save for use in shoulder straps later. Work edging around armhole, and when you reach top (where shoulder strap will be), work stitches into one of the crochet chains you made in advance. Repeat for second armhole & shoulder strap.

Finishing: Referring to finishing schematic, seam ruffles to garment.

Finishing

Be sure to secure the ruffle to several locations on both front and back of garment.

Place ruffle loop over the garment and use running stitch as a guide to placement. Seam ruffle in place by working backstitch around the entire loop with Urban.
